

Soroptimist International of Commonwealth

Chartered in July 2018, Soroptimist International of Commonwealth is the youngest among Metro Manila Northeast District clubs. Its mother club, Soroptimist International of Nova-Central, established the club under President Regielyn Supangan, who encouraged Vilma Cuico to become the Charter President. The induction ceremony took place at the SEDA Hotel in Quezon City, with District Director Ma. Lourdes Capati Ocampo of MMNED overseeing the installation of officers, including Regielyn Supangan, Claire Raymundo, Cynthia De Leon, Beth Pimentel, and Elena Yango. Later that year, the club held a joint induction ceremony with SI Marikina Metro at Ayala Hillside Country Club in QC, where Charter Members Marivic Laguatan and Jasmine Cuico were inducted along with Charter Officers. At present, Ms. Zorraidia “Zarrah” Villate as the current president made sure that the legacy will continue.

AIMS

Soroptimist International of Commonwealth is dedicated to advancing the main goal of Soroptimist International of the Americas (SIA), which is to improve the lives of women and girls through education and economic empowerment. The club firmly believes in the same principles as other Soroptimist clubs, with a shared commitment to empowering women and girls and improving their lives in local communities and throughout the world through a range of service programs.

Through its initiatives and activities, Soroptimist International of Commonwealth strives to create a world where all women and girls can thrive and reach their full potential. The club recognizes the importance of education as a means of enabling women and girls to become financially independent and reach their career goals. It provides support, mentorship, and resources to help women and girls gain the knowledge and skills they need to succeed. Additionally, the club focuses on promoting sustainable development and improving the lives of women and girls in underserved communities by providing access to clean water, healthcare, and other basic needs.

Soroptimist International of Commonwealth also places a strong emphasis on advocacy and awareness-raising around issues affecting women and girls, such as gender-based violence, discrimination, and inequality. The club is committed to working with other organizations and stakeholders to address these issues and ensure that the voices of women and girls are heard and valued. Overall, Soroptimist International of Commonwealth is a dedicated and passionate organization that is making a positive impact in the lives of women and girls. Through its work, the club is helping to create a more equitable and just world for all.
